

November Tri-County AA Panels/Alcothons

Obtained Co-Chair for Kenosha County: Jill Grubbs Past DCM jgrubbs0806@gmail.com 224-399-5225

--Jill has enlisted 4 people to be panel leader/moderators. She has advised the leader/moderators that the time slots and topics will be given to them on or before the end of December.

Obtained tentative Co-Chair for Racine County: Frank B., last year's Chair. He will confirm or otherwise advise his suggestion/nominee at the November 4th planning meeting. There is a lady named Roxanne who may be interested.

Lake County has enlisted 4 people to be panel leader/moderators. Have advised time slots and topics will be given on or before the end of December, with one exception: As host, Lake County will have a first choice of a time slot, and have asked Laurie F., DCM Dist. 10, to be the leader/moderator and have requested the subject be Just For Today/Desiderata.

Tweaked a couple of the suggested theme titles to be more broadly based and therefore easier topics for panels to work with.* And we will use the single word suggestions for the Alcothon topics.

RE AA Panel/Alcothon topics: (See asterisk) We discovered we could not find "Just For Today" in the Big Book. We did find the Poem was approved as AA Literature in Great Britain and Laurrie says it is USA approved too. Whew!

Went on the invited trip to the venue. Have a better idea of the 3 rooms AA Panels/Alcothons will have. Need to know how many hours the Corrections Committee needs a room. If not needed all day we may be able to fit in a short workshop.

*We are double checking all topics to be from AA literature before assigning them.

November Action List:

-- Pursue a joint AA and AI-Anon event in the 4:30PM time slot. Once discussed that event can include AI-Ateens,, can be a skit, a simple Q&A session, or a regular panel as per their decision.

--verify all topics are from AA approved literature.

--assign time slots (can be tentative) and topics to the moderators.

--if Corrections only needs the Judges Panel Room for a few hours, come up with a short workshop

Thank you & Yours in Service,
